For what special education services might my student be eligible?

Your child may have difficulties that interfere with his/her ability to go to school or to learn. These difficulties may be in one or more of these areas:

Speech and Language Development	Vision Problems
Hearing Problems	Physical Development
Academic Development	Thinking/Memory Skills
Attention/Perception Skills	Social/Emotional Development
Living Skills	Other Health Conditions

The Los Angeles Unified School District is committed to serving the educational needs of each of its students. Children with disabilities may be eligible to receive special education services. These services are designed to meet their educational needs and will be provided at no additional cost to their families. In some circumstances, special education services can begin at birth and continue until age twenty-two (22).

Start by contacting your school. There are four basic steps in the special education process:

1. Referral for Assessment
2. Assessment
3. Development and Implementation of an Individualized Education Program (IEP)
4. IEP Review

For details about each of these steps, and to learn more about special education services, ask your local school or visit http://sped.lausd.net.

The School Report Card helps you find out how many students in special education are scoring proficient or advanced on the California Standardized Test in English and math. This means those students are at grade level in those areas.

Look on the Student Groups page (page 4) of the School Report Card for how many students with disabilities are at grade level.

Students in special education scoring proficient or advanced in…
English language arts	7%	8%	5%
Math	5%	3%	2%

The School Report Card also helps you find out how many students at your school have disabilities. In the example in this chart, 14% (in other words, about 1 out of every 10) of students enrolled at this school have disabilities. Look also at how many other different types of students attend your school.

Look on the Learn More page (page 5) of the School Report Card for how many students at your school have disabilities.

Percentage of students enrolled who are…

African American	3%	Gifted and talented	2%
American Indian	1%	Students with disabilities	14%
Asian	2%	English learners	56%
Filipino	1%	Reclassified fluent English proficient	10%
Latino	91%	Economically disadvantaged	97%
Pacific Islander	2%	Students entering and leaving	28%
White	0%
