

Books of Summer

A summer reading program presented by Superintendent David L. Brewer III in partnership with the Los Angeles Public Library and the Los Angeles County Public Library

Contest Rules

CONTEST DATES:

Monday, June 30 through Friday, August 29, 2008

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

All Los Angeles Unified School District elementary (entering Kindergarten in July or September 2008), middle school (entering Grade 6 in July or September 2008), and high school (entering Grade 9 in July or September 2008) students can participate, whether they are on vacation, intersession, or attend a year-round school during the summer months.

HOW TO ENTER:

- Student reads at least four books from LAUSD's Books of Summer list, the Los Angeles public Library and/or Los Angeles County Public Library summer reading program lists
- Student writes creative book reports for at least four books
- Student completes an entry form with name, age, grade, and school for each submission
- Student submits the completed entry forms and "book reports" to his/her school by Friday, September 5, 2008.

JUDGING:

Each school will choose one entry to submit to its Local District by Friday, September 12. Each Local District will select three elementary, three middle school, and three high school entries to submit to Instructional Media Services in ranked order from first to third place by Friday, September 19. Instructional Media Services will review the entries submitted by the Local Districts and announce the winners by Friday, September 26.

